

Janelle Marr
DIRECTOR - INDEPENDENT

Janelle Marr is an experienced Independent Director and Strategy Executive with over 25 years in governance, strategy and business transformation across Australia, Asia Pacific and global markets.

Her Directorships as Chair, Deputy Chair and Non-Executive Director and corporate advisory roles have seen her operating across diverse sectors from infrastructure, transport and logistics, finance, insurance and commerce, higher education, energy, tourism, health, disabilities, conservation, parks, to creative industries.

Janelle commenced her career in industrial relations and human resources management, before moving into strategy and professional services. Following a successful senior executive career within the advisory arms of both KPMG and EY, she founded StepBeyond Strategy, an award-winning, impact-driven corporate advisory.

She is a Fellow of Australian Institute of Company Directors, Fellow and past Councillor of Governance Institute of Australia, a graduate of the Global Competent Boards ESG & Sustainability Designation (GCB.D), and is currently certifying INSEAD's International Director Program (IDP-C). She also holds a Bachelor of Arts (UWA) and Master of Business Administration (UQ/ Mt Eliza).

Janelle is keen to leverage her national experience and networks across business, government and community sectors, and her deep multi-sector expertise to assist BSC to achieve its mission of 'creating a circular economy for batteries as a leading model for product stewardship'.
